

Analyzing Food Ads

How do food ads seem to make food more appealing?

How are the messages targeted towards kids?

What are some of the negative sides of food products that you don't see in ads?

Do you think you have been influenced by these ads? Why or why not?

What other techniques do food companies use to encourage us to buy more? What other factors influence our food choices?